Chester Fall Festival is a community event sponsored by Chester Community Events, Inc. as a fundraiser for local service projects and programs and to showcase the Town of Chester.

All Festival staff are volunteers. Please take care to treat all volunteers, attendees and other vendors with kindness and respect. Abusive behavior or language may result in your expulsion from the event and exclusion from future participation.

All products must be handmade and only the work described in this application may be displayed.

By participating in this event, I hereby waive and release any and all rights and claims for any damages and/or injuries, which I may suffer as a result of participating, against Chester Community Events, Inc., its members, or the Town of Chester and its residents. It is the responsibility of each vendor to maintain their booth in compliance with local health and safety regulations.
